TALKING BLACK IN AMERICA

presented by THE LANGUAGE AND LIFE PROJECT AT NC STATE, produced and directed by NEAL HUTCHESON and DANICA CULLINAN, executive producer WALT WOLFRAM

Join us for a movie screening!

Talking Black in America follows the unique circumstances of the descendants of American slaves and their incredible impact on American life and language. Speech varieties from the African American community reflect the imprint of African language systems, the influences of regional British and Southern American dialects, and the creativity and resilience of people living through oppression, segregation and the fight for equality. Filmed across the United States, Talking Black in America is a startling revelation of language as legacy, identity and triumph over adversity. With Reverend Jeremiah Wright, DJ Nabs, Professor Griff, Quest M.C.O.D.Y., Dahlia the Poet, Nicky Sunshine and many others.
