

Criteria for the Allocation of Travel Funds to PhD students at the CSLS

(1) An application is possible at any time.

(2) The application has to be handed in before departure.

(3) The relevance of participation will be judged by the thesis supervisor and briefly confirmed to the director of the CSLS PhD program. Among the academic events for which funds are available are:

- Active participation at a conference with a talk/poster of one's own
- Attendance at a winter / summer school
- Participation at a workshop
- Participation at courses relevant to the PhD student's research

(4) The maximum sum awarded is CHF 500 for travels within Europe and CHF 1000 for outside Europe.

(5) Application for funds can be handed in not more than once a year.

(6) Decisions about allocations will be made at the end of each semester: application by April 15 = decision in spring term / application by October 15 = decision in fall term

(7) An accounting with original receipts is to be sent to the CSLS.

Accommodation costs: Expenses at a mid-priced place of accommodation; Travel costs: Public transport, economy/second class

(8) Not more than once a year, additional smaller sums can be paid for the participation of courses or workshops in Switzerland and railway fares in second class.
