S⁴ SUMMER SCHOOL FOR SOCIOLINGUISTICS IN SWITZERLAND

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The Center for the Study of Language and Society (CSLS) at the University of Bern organizes a summer school for PhD researchers working on the interface between language and society in its many facets. The aim is to bring together a wide range of perspectives, from language variation and change to more qualitative approaches on language planning and attitudes.

We offer guest lectures, workshops on methods and soft skills, as well as the opportunity for doctoral candidates to present their research and receive feedback from peers and experts in the field.

You are invited to send a short abstract (300 words) of your current work to christoph.neuenschwander@wbkolleg.unibe.ch by 25 June 2020.
